

NOTICE TO THE BAR

Amicus Curiae Participation

On September 10, 2002 the Court of Appeals granted leave to appeal in Matter of Maxine Allen; Commissioner of Labor, a matter concerning the application of Labor Law § 511 in the context of a "telecommuting" employment situation. The Appellate Division decision appears at 294 AD2d 685, 741 NYS2d 342.

The Court invites amicus curiae participation from those qualified and interested.

Amicus motions must comply with section 500.11(e) of the Rules of the Court of Appeals. The text of the Rule is available on the Court's internet web site at:
